“ You were SO talented and a genuine father. I was lucky enough to know you and your strong live presence, humor and talent together in a band. Gone too soon is sadly an understatement. Maybe one day we will jam again... Rest in Peace Rich. You will be missed by so so many.

“ My heart is breaking at this news of Rich's passing. Trinity was in my school /daycare when they lived in Savannah and we have kept in touch through FB . I wish I was closer to give love and hugs during this time but please know Alexis that I am keeping you and Trinity and your family in my prayers. Rich was a good husband, dad and person . God Bless .

“ I was in theatre with Rich and Alexis all 4 years of high school. We did so many shows together and shared countless memories. I still have all the pictures from the old instamatic cameras that had to be wound up after every take.
Rich, you will be missed for sure. Alexis and Trinity, you are in my thoughts today.

“ Ever since Rich & Rickey became friends Rich has always been like a brother to me. He always had my back, no matter the time of day or what the circumstance was he was always there for me and looked out for me as if I were his little sister. He meant so much to our family he was pretty much a part of it. He will always be in our hearts and on our minds, in our thoughts and prayers and he will never be forgotten. We love you Rich! We're going to miss you buddy!

“ My memories of Rich start back when he was in elementary thru high school with my daughter Courtney. From sock hops to school plays, football to that green road runner. Mental illness is a serious illness and is hidden from most. You were and still are loved by so many you will be missed.
