“ I have known Richard for many many years. I first met him when I worked at Kelli's in loganville and from there I went to work at Waffle House and he would come in to eat with the Briscoe's. He was always in a good mood and never a bad thing to say about anyone. I only met Candy a handful of times and my heart breaks for you. You and the kids were his life. I always enjoyed talking to him and he was always ready with a listening ear. You will be missed by many old friend. Go with God now and rest easy. No more pain and suffering. My heart and thoughts and prayers are with the family at this very devastating and hard time. Sending prayers
