“ This is David Smith, son of Ralph W. Smith and Patricia Bauer Smith. We have lost touch over the years and all of us boys feel bad about it. I use to see Vickie when I came down south in California on business but over the years we just go other ways. I will miss Rickie and his charm and humor. I remember when he was stationed here in the bay area at the Air force base up at Mount Umnum. Rickie use to come see my Mom and Dad and can hear Rickie say, Hi Uncle Ralph and Aunt Pat. We had a lot of good time and laughter, We will miss Ricky. Any hello to Phyllis it has been a long time and my dear Aunt Betty. All the best.

“ I am saddened to learn of Rick's death. We met every day for eight years at 14th & Chestnut and walked for about a mile with Joe Heine back and forth to St. Ann's school. We even walked back and forth also at lunch time. Many times we also met often to serve as Altar Boys, sometimes very early for 6:00 Am Mass. Most of our other classmates lived in other neighborhoods. Unfortunately we did not have e-mail and social media to keep in contact in those days. These were the days that we formed our character. I am sure that Rick continued in his life with the same strength of character that he showed during our formative years. I hope that his family can now share strength during this time.
I miss those days.

“ Phyllis, may God give you strength, understanding and most of all peace at this time. I enjoyed so much getting to see you and Dick on those rare occasions. To me Dick had such class and dignity about him. Every time I was around him I always had the sense of what a great man he was. Be comforted knowing he is in a better place now. Daisy and I send our love and prayers to you Phyllis! ”

“ The smiles, the laughter, the good times will be remembered forever. His life touched ours in so many wonderful ways. We are saddened that his healing came through death instead of here on earth. He is now with his Lord and Savior. We look forward to the day that we meet up with him and hoping that he has picked out a great camping spot for us. ”
