“ My father was a simple man who loved to sit around and play his Martin guitar, listen to the old gospel hymns and watch the Grand Ole Opry. He loved my brothers, sister and me, loved his son and daughter-n-laws and treated them as his own children, especially the daughter-n-laws. Through thick and thin, good times and bad times, he loved and shared a long life with my mother up until he passed peacefully at home, which is something I know my mom and us are very grateful to God for. With a tear in my eyes, I want my Dad to know I Love him and I will keep him with me in my heart forever.

I Love You Dad, Greg

I'm just learning of your fathers passing as well as your mothers and Todd. I treasure the memories of your father and his sense of humor. Those were special times on Comanche Dr.. He made the best banana ice cream ever. Please contact me at your leisure as I would love to hear from all of you. Chip Wells 404-580-4667. God bless.
