“ To my Brother Richard, This is not to say goodbye but to let you know that you will always be in my thoughts, and the memories of times past where when growing up we had lots of fun, laughter and the love of our mother. You are with our Mother now, and resting with her. I can still picture you as the youngest brother and how we grew up. People say it is those that have a lot are rich. I say that it is those that believe in Jesus, and those who have each other. I love you Richard, and I will pass on those memories to my children and grand children. May our Lord Jesus hold you in his arms. James & Patricia Ragsdale and family. Fredericksburg, VA
