“ Mary Ann,
I was sorry to learn of my former co-worker's death. I have many memories from years spent working in the same agency with Ivan, the best of which were after I was reassigned to the Lawrenceville office.
I enjoyed Ivan and his uniqueness. He was one of a kind who will not soon be forgotten. I pray that time will fill the empty space that he leaves and that only good memories will endure for you and your sons.##imported-begin##David Sinclair##imported-end##

“ Mary Ann, Rich, and Brian,

Please accept my condolences on Ivan's passing. He was a very warm, compassionate, caring man who I had the pleasure knowing as a neighbor (on Fieldstream Way) and as a professional. So many benefited from the outstanding work he did as a vocational counselor. He was a man of many talents - I still hold dear the portrait he took when he had the photo studio on Hwy. 29 . He really captured the essence of Jonathan.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Fondly,

“ Ivan was a friend a colleague for many years. I have missed him since he stopped participating in GRA functions. I will miss him more now. May God bless you and comfort you.

“ Mary Ann, Rich and Brian,

My heart goes out to you in this time of sorrow.

May tides of happy memories overcome the waves of grief that are with you now.

With my love and support,
