“ I just learned of Coach Weeks' death. I knew him first as "Rick" a camp counselor from the YMCA Day Camp at Stone Mountain park. Imagine my surprise that on my first day of my junior year at SMHS, Rick... uh Coach Weeks... walked in as a new teacher for that class! We locked eyes and started to laugh simultaneously! Now, I'm just as surprised but in a horrific way to learn that wonderful man is no longer on this Earth. I am so terribly sorry for the family's loss and promise to always remember him very fondly.

“ Dear Weeks family. I am so saddened by this news. I pray that you find strength and peace during this extremely difficult time. I lost my father two years ago and know the anguish that you are feeling. I will keep you close in my thoughts and will pray for your strength. I will forever feel blessed that I got to call Rick my coach. He was one of the most influential mentors of my life and taught me many lessons for use on and off the field. I connected with him a couple of years ago and was able to thank him for his lifelong guidance. “See the whole field Michelle, don’t dive in, when up against a competitor change your speed or change your direction”. These philosophies guide me still today in life and business — a strong team means everything. He was and will always be exceptional. He knew how to reach us... And the running he made us do can never be forgotten. Love you Coach. Thank you for your investment in us. You will be missed.

“ Dear Weeks family my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. They say in time it heals all wounds. Well not for everyone! Remember to talk about him, laugh and cry! With your feelings you'll eventually learn how to continue on. Life will be forever different. Just know he would want you to move forward. Yeah, it won't be easy, but every day you get up that's a step in the right direction! The best guidance through all of this is Christ! Keep your faith, that's where I've found my strength when I wanted to quit. When you need to talk find someone who will listen. Get out and be apart if life again. Praying for you all!

“ Julie, I am SO sorry for you and your family's loss. I was completely taken aback as Rick was young than I am. I know that you will have so many offers of help, but if there is anything your old friend can do for you, PLEASE ask me. (770) 466-9141. I loved talking basketball with Rick, and I well remember the night we all went to the Shakespeare Tavern.
