“ Ricky is my 1st cousin. I had not seen or heard of him in a lot of years. We all spent alot of summers together. Our lives took their own direction, but I still think of Ricky often. And I still love him!

“ Uncle Ricky had a larger than life personality and was always the life of the party. He never held grudges against anyone and always had a different perspective on anything that you asked him about. He could make you see the best out of a bad situation. He loved music, the louder the better. He love the race and fishing and hunting and most of all he loved his family. He was the best uncle, papaw, and dad anyone could ask for. I hope you can hear his laugh just by looking at these pictures! We will all miss you and love you so much forever!

Ricky is the life of the party. He always has a smile on his face and a song in his heart. He was my best friend and we were always comparing music. We always talked about when we got old and going to the mountains.. Sadly we never got there. I know that is where you wanted to be, and I will get you there.. I love you so much, and I will miss you more than you will ever know!!

“ After Randy and I got married I was lucky enough to spend a lot of time with Rickey. He was always the most fun and entertaining to be around. He was up for everything and anything. I loved when he would go into his Disc Jockey/Radio Host bit. He really missed his calling there. He was a huge part of our life, he was Randy's BEST FRIEND. He flew out to Tucson to help us move back to Georgia, what a trip that was. The only thing that got him through was my "Joe Froggers". He went to Ohio one year with us on vacation. Everyone always wanted to be around him. Him and the boys even spent a Christmas Eve with us and spent the night. The next morning Rickey and I were dancing and singing to The Tractors "Santa Claus Is Coming (In a boogie-woogie choo-choo train)". I have tried posting a couple of pictures that I had close at hand. (I have hundreds somewhere). My favorite is him in the Red Jacket. THIS is my Rickey. You will be missed and you were ALWAYS LOVED! debra
