“ *Randy, if there was any possible way I'd be at the service. My husband will be transporting to Rehab., and still can't walk. But, know I'm there in spirit little red haired brother. Know you are loved by thousands, and he's at peace. As Mom told me before she left me. She would always be watching after me and how true were those words. God bless my childhood friend. I remember Ricky and Randy too showing me Danny and Tony that if u lay coins on the train tracks and let the train run over them they flatten out. We thought that was the coolest thing back then. U always saw him at the fair. He didn't ride but he'd walk around it 10-15 times. He always had a smile and a pony tail. Rick u were my friend and cousin and that doesn't happen often. To actually like some of ur family is rare and cuz u were a rare one. We love u we're gona miss u but ur in great company.. RIP Ricky Dean gone but never forgotten
