“ Ricky, for those who knew you best, you have always had that something special that can only be described as magic. Many have come to you in situations that would make the most open minded individual stop and think twice before they would get involved, but you would just jump in feet first! For those times when you really went above and beyond..thank u! You will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Stacy and Jennifer Morris##imported-end##

“ Ricky,
I sure was glad that we had all the years together that we did. We had some bad times, but we had alot of great years. You were my best friend and I will miss you very much. I will see you soon and we will start all over again! I am happy that you chose me to take care of you the last few months that you were here. I would do it all over again if I had the chance.
Love You So Very Much,
