“ I will always remember sweet Rita as a beautiful girl who was friendly and helpful to everyone. It was so nice to see her at the 50th reunion! It was wonderful to have the opportunity to reconnect with her then. God Bless and I am sending good wishes and prayers for the family.

“ Where do I even start?! Rita was like a second Mom to me... especially during the summers we all spent together at the beach. I can hear her long Southern drawl and laugh right now. And I hope I never forget how that sounds. I hope my sweet Daddy welcomed her with a big hug.
My prayers are with all who loved Rita, especially Robby, Lorey and Rob. I understand your pain. Nothing I can say will make it easier. Hold onto the precious memories. Love you all

“ What great memories we have of Rita riding in the Model A on the Social Security Runs that we got to enjoy with her and Rob. She so enjoyed going on those car tours. We will never forget her beautiful smile and laugh. She will be greatly missed!!! Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this difficult time. Love,
