“ Robbie was a on fire Christian man, always talking about the love of Jesus. I was married to his uncle so I knew him his whole life. He was always sweet and kind and loved his family, his church and most of all Jesus. He will be missed.

“ I remember meeting you and Robbie in the singles class at Sanctuary. He was an inspiration to me as well as yourself. So sorry to hear of his passing but he had finished the course that God prepared for him. He is now celebrating with God and is painfree. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. I pray God provide the comfort that only he can during this moment of grief.

“ My heart goes out to all of Robbie's family and friends and pets that loved him so much. The Plumbing industry lost a great plumber with a greater heart. It didn't matter if you had no money, Robbie would fix it anyway for free. He had a heart of gold. I will never forget the things he taught me. I will continue to ask him for plumbing advice. He was one of my best friends and will miss him more than he will ever know. Love John And Diane Gee and family

“ My heart is broken.... Robert came to replace an outdoor faucet for us one day and I went to pay him he wouldn't. take it, I tried to insist and he said “no, you might rob me of a blessing if I take your money for such a small job, you don't owe me anything” . Thank you for your kind way and for holding the umbrellas in the rain, and for being a sweet soul.... Angie Browning and family.

“ We are very grateful to meet Robert! How he has blessed us deeply. We are honored that he had requested to meet with us and we were equally blessed to pray with him. He told us “God's not done with me yet”! He was right! He was met by our Lord and Savior this morning and He's now planning eternity in Heaven! Dance with the Angels Robert ❤️

“ I met Robbie and Julie while attending Sanctuary Baptist Church. He and Julie were not just members but friends. They both helped my late husband “Barry” and I through many hard situations. Robbie knew where Barry “was” and had been. I believe he reached many people with his testimony and honest understanding of where people were in certain circumstances. I feel very fortunate and blessed to have been a friend of his and his family. One of my best memories is when we all went camping at Stone Mtn Park. We had our own little village. Fun times and good people. Robbie you will be truly missed.

“ I remember Robbie Davis leaving his grandchild's birthday early, in order to fix a piece on our refrigerator. We were closing the next morning at 9:00, and he came that night from at 8:00 to keep our closing in order. He was such a lovely man, who was filled with the Holy Spirit, and never missed a chance to lead others to Salvation! We will miss his sweet smile and handshakes each Sunday and Wednesday night. Thank you, Robert, you will be greatly missed!
