“ *Brandi,
My heart is with you and your family. One of my close friends sent me this poem when my grandmother, whom I was very close to passed away. I hope it will give you the same comfort:*

A Thousand Winds

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*

“ I remember Robby when he and my middle son Joey were in the same Sunday School class. He always had the most beautiful eyes and was always sweet to me. Robby actually got to work with my husband at Tribble Mill Park when something needed repairing or building. Harry always spoke highly of him and they would laugh about what a small world we live in. Our hearts go out to you all and our Prayers are with you. Praise God for His Grace, His Love and His Precious Mercy. Love in Christ, Sandi and Harry Towler
