“ His dedication to his family, his ever-positive attitude, along with a strong work ethic, made it a tremendous pleasure to work for Bob Hunter while he was in Nashville. He certainly lived by "Treat everyone as you would like to be treated".

I will never forget his hearty laugh and his love for life. He was the epitome of a true gentleman.

My prayers are with the entire Hunter family.

Blessings,

“ Bob was the Nashville division head when I was transferred to Dallas in 1989. Even though I was on Home Office staff, he provided me a nice, private office in the division office. He was always extremely pleasant to work with and I appreciate to this day his kindness to an "outsider" in division's midst who was always running out to some governmental matter. When my transfer came down, Bob and the staff arranged a surprise goodbye luncheon and presented me with a framed collection of Pointer prints of Nashville landmarks. Each person wrote a message on the back. This hangs in my home today, and I read the salutations , including Bob's, again today. He was a good executive and, more importantly, he was a good man. May the Good Lord bless and keep you until we meet again. = Smith Rea, Jr

“ Bob Hunter was a very special person who was larger than life and always had a positive approach to things. He was a mentor, an ally at work, and most important a good friend to me. He had a deep laugh and a sincere way of showing you he cared and made everyone feel important .

I know he was struggling in the last few months but he was always upbeat during our phone conversations, and found a way to make me laugh and feel better. Gail and I will miss him very much----and we're thankful that he and Dorothy were our friends----we're all better off because we knew Bob.
