“ I worked with Robert at Tomco for 10 years. If I could get him to crack a smile it would make my day. Now I am smiling for him for he is with god now and catching the largest bass ever. Your friend always , Robert, Ken Gardner

“ Mary,
I can only imagine the shock and grief you are in right now. Your Robert for 40 years is living in Heaven with Jesus now. I am so sad for you (and your family). I do know that you are a woman of great Faith, and God will carry us through when we need Him.
I will continue praying for you. I'll call you soon.
I've always loved you,
Kathy (Johnson) Stewart

“ Robert was a man of few words. He was a quiet man that had a huge heart. A kind man that showed sincerity. A wise man that held much wisdom. For these reasons I always enjoyed Roberts company when I visited he and Mary. I will truly miss him. With much Love, Joann
