“ I think of my grandad everyday. I miss him, and feel terrible that I could not say goodbye in person. I couldn't have asked for a better mentor, and positive influence. What didn't he teach me. He was a glue that connected every branch of the family, and it's because of him I know my heritage. He grew up in a tougher time, and he knew how to work harder than most. He made sure I had lots of shoes as a child because he had none. Stubborn at times and a little old fashioned, but his kind heart and generous nature heavily outweighed the previous. I have three young children now. I hope to teach them the same values and love that he not only showed his family but the common man as well. He was an important man to hundreds of people. Thank you all for the posts. Sincerely, Andrew Brantley

“ Uncle Bob will be missed by all. We loved his kind heart and gentle spirit. He never spoke an unkind word to anyone. He loved South Gwinnett Baseball and went to see William play baseball. He never met a stranger and loved to talk to everyone he met. We love you Uncle Bob. Donna, Barry, William and Matthew##imported-begin##Donna Puckett##imported-end##
