“ Robert L. "Buddy" Churchwell

“ My most vivid memory of Buddy was playing baseball (Tumpane Tigers?) at Cochran Field. On one occasion, he couldn't hit the ball with his new glasses so he threw them about ten yards away, then hit it. My prayers go out to the Churchwell family. Like Jimmy's comments, much happened in the 50's and the Churchwell family befriended many and opened their home to all of us.##imported-begin##Doyle Stewart##imported-end##

“ I COULD WRITE A BOOK ABOUT THE GOOD TIMES WITH BUDDY AND ALL THE CHURCHWELL FAMILY. WE WERE LUCKY TO HAVE LIVED IN THE WONDERFUL 50'S. I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THE "TUMPANE TIGERS" BASEBALL TEAM, DRAGGIN CHERRY, THE VARSITY, AND MUCH MORE. REST IN PEACE MY OLD FRIEND.##imported-begin##JAMES W. ( JIMMY ) MELTON##imported-end##

“ Dad I'm going to miss you calling every morning right when I walked into QT to get me coffee. I love you and my heart is breaking, but all I have to do is look at Neile and Billy and know you live on. I hope you're playing golf and breathing with ease. I love you, Donna##imported-begin##Donna Bradshaw##imported-end##

“ I love you, with all my heart.
I don't know how to deal with this.
I just want you to know that in my eyes,
you dad, will always be perfect.
I will miss you everyday for the rest of my life.
One day I will see you again and knowing that helps me through this.
Lacey and Mikey love you so much.
You live on in myself and them. We all love and miss you.##imported-begin##Neile Churchwell##imported-end##
