“ An Irish Funeral Prayer
Death is nothing at all.
It does not count.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
Everything remains as it was.
The old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.
Call me by the old familiar name.
Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no sorrow in your tone.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effort
Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was.
There is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.
All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before.
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting, when we meet again
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory
no one can steal

Our memories with you always make me smile which I know you intended- you have been like the ripple in the water that spreads endlessly and touched so many people-

We will always you Bob Beck for the very special friend you will always be to us##imported-begin##Pat & Tom

“ There are no words for the loss I feel in my heart at the loss of my Godfather who took on that role and responsibility and offered not only guidance but a true friendship as well. Him and Charlotte showed me nothing but love. I will truly miss you and cherish every moment that we shared together. With those thoughts comes many smiles. I love Bob.##imported-begin##Julie Plucinski##imported-end##

“ I can't even begin to express how much I will miss our conversations whether at the table at 5am or over the phone. I can never fully thank you for everything you have ever done for me. I will never be able to fully describe exactly how much I love you because the limits are endless. But knowing now that I could tell you every day how much I do,, and to never hear it back in return.. that is heart ache like no one has ever known. Dad, thank you for making my life so beautiful and thank you for being the single most important person in my life. I will never let go of you. I love you.##imported-begin##Wendy (Beck) Kreiser##imported-end##

“ I am always at a loss for words in times like these. I know your hearts are broken and I am so very sad for you. Just know that everytime you think of him, tell of a fond memory or see a stranger on the street that reminds you of him--he lives on. As long as someone remembers him then some of him remains here...I love you guys!###imported-begin##Tiffany Chameides###imported-end##
