“ Rodney and I knew each other from school- always funny and always kind. Always. But he went to the same church as my grandparents and when my grandad died, he and other men from that church were his palbearers. I remember hugging Rodney and being so thankful that my grandad thought so much of that group of men- young men mostly. Will never forget that connection. Christ has you Rodney...be at peace. Much love Milissa and Franklin. ”

“ I remember Rodney growing up in church. He was a kind young man. As we all grow older we drift apart but he did take care of his family. May God’s be on his family ❤️

“ I met Rodney when I married his aunt Vickie. We lived next door to Randy and Wanda so Rodney and Brian would pop over from time to time. My son was only about four and Rodney was so kind to Mark and made him welcome in the Wilson Clan. Rodney was always a kind hearted boy and he never changed. Hard worker like his daddy and fun to be around like his mother just a great person to know. When Randy passed away Rodney had to step up and keep the business prospering because R&R provides a service that is crucial to people with mobility challenges and employees have their livelihood on the line. Mellisa and Franklin were his life and he loved them as much as any man could. When all is said and done and a young man goes way before he should have it comes down to three things: Did he love and provide for his family? He did. Was he an honest and truthful man? He was. Was he a Born Again Believer in Jesus Christ, saved by grace? He was most definitely! Rest In Peace Rodney with the loved ones who await you.
