“ I never got to meet you and your children. Roger would always talk about the activities he shared with the kids. I was honored last year to fish a tournament with Roger and to win my first tournament ever. He was a competitor in everything he did. I will miss him very much and pray we all listened to the pastor's service yesterday. I know the message regarding our feelings came over in a very positive way.

May God bless your family in remembering what Roger gave to us.

Sincerely, Russell Stover###imported-begin###Russell

“ My life is much the better for the privilege to call Roger my friend. I've known only a handful of men of integrity and Roger is one of them.

No words to express my loss and no words to express my feelings and no words to fill my void, but I have plenty of happy memories that I will always treasure. You are forever in our hearts.

From all the Cotten Family we keep your family in prayers and stand with you, and know that we are here for you, anytime.##imported-begin##Rick Cotten##imported-end##
