“ I am missing you so much Grandpa. How I wish I could hear you play Doc Watson one more time. Let it rain, let it pour...one time you sang a song about “Alice, with legs like toothpicks, went upstairs to take a bath”....I only remember the moral of the story was that Alice’s legs were so skinny that she went down the drain. I didn’t want to take a bath for years and mom never knew why. Also, you made me learn the song/ lyrics to Jailhouse Blues and sing at every family gathering after I stole all the Girl Scout cookies.

Christen Cribbs - February 05, 2020 at 09:38 PM

“ I miss you so much grandpa and can't wait to see you again one day. Thank you for always being there. One of my favorite memories is when we would pick the vegetables in your garden in Rabun county. I always tried to eat them despite being raw and you would laugh. Also picking blackberries so grandma could make cobbler. And when we went to Burger King one day-when I was in high school-and stuffed our faces with cheeseburgers. You were such a wonderful grandpa to me. Thank you. I love you so much.

Christen Cribbs - August 05, 2016 at 10:02 PM

“ You will be missed. I'll never forget what you said to me at grandpa's funeral. You gave me hope that everything would be alright. - Your great-nephew. Matthew R. Nicholas

“ Dearest Family,

I had Mr Nichoals in the 6th grade, he gave me my first whipping in school, brecause i wasn't respecting him or my parents, i have since then changed my way of thinking and was pleased for him to over see my kids while they were at school, he also taught me to roller skate my favorite memory of him, laughing with us on joke day.....most Fridays

i wish your pain to become laughter

“ Mr. Nicholas was one of the finest men I ever knew! BY FAR.....my favorite teach, principal and superintendent of all time!!!! What a truly special man with a gift to teach and share laughter and positivity in every way! Always keep your glass half full and focus on the good things! That message has stuck with me since the 6th grade! He was a special friend to both my parents Sonny and Becky Cannon and remained in touch with them until a couple of years ago. My thoughts are with you during this horrible time, however, Roger made his mark on this world and will live on FOREVER! Peace to you all!###imported-begin##Tammy Cannon Huggins###imported-end##
