“ Ron was such a great guy, so sweet and kind with that big personality. We meet him in 1985 and have always considered him a dear friend ever since. We moved to Atlanta in 1987, and Ron was instrumental in introducing us to Atlanta and our community. He helped us find our first home, which happened to be in his condo complex. We have enjoyed every Christmas party which was such a tradition for him. Thank you Barry, for the wonderful parties and all the beautiful trees, you guys made Christmas special for so many. There are so many fond memories, Rest In Peace our dear friend. Barry our thoughts and prayers are with you and family. Love, Marc and Bill.
