“ Brad, my heart aches for you and your family in this loss. I thought highly of your Dad, and while I didn't know Kathy as well, I know the two of them loved each other dearly. I remember Ron as a consummate professional, always willing to share insights and perspectives with those who sought his guidance, and that he cared for each person he interacted with. And of course, he loved a good story and a good laugh! My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Ron and Kathy, you left us too soon. We loved you and will miss you.

I always got a kick out of Ron's smile as a kid. His smile looked like he had just avoided getting in trouble or he was churning up a way to create havoc. The cat that swallowed the canary smile. I loved that sweet smile and I will miss it and him.

Brad, great picture you selected of your mom and dad.

*Love and prayers,

“ One of my favorite memories of Ron and Kathy was when they were dating. We were spending a few days at Ilene's house and they were there. They offered to take me and Becky to the pool. We were so excited. I remember going to the pool with them and having so much fun.

They were older than us and we were so excited to spend that time with them. Loved them both and will miss them.

“Brad, I know that moving to Georgia was a decision that was good for both your mom and dad - increasing the love and devotion they shared together. But we have missed them so much because of the distance between us all, and as a family we are all sharing in your loss and grieving with you.

I would like to share one memory about your dad: he LOVED to laugh, and this picture of them is so fitting of that memory. He shared that laughter with us all, especially in the way he could tell a story - he could tell about an experience and make you feel you were right there in that experience with him... my mom always said that was a gift from our Grandpa Whitson - that Ron sounded just like him in the way he could do that. The memory of that laughter is a blessing to all who have shared it, and your dad's joy was a blessing to us all.

We love you....gaye dawn

“ Ron was a wonderful friend and the face of Batesville during my career in funeral service. He was humble to a fault and the most dependable sales rep I have ever known. His singular goal was to help his clients be successful. To his family, thank you for sharing Ron with us for all these years. We sincerely share your grief and pray for your peace of mind as you endure this great loss. Lamar Wright McKoon Funeral Home.
