The last I see Ronnie was at RaceTrac in Loganville about 3 years when I was moving I was moving to moving. He will be deeply missed by a lot of people. The day that we were being born we start dying we just don't know when, but always remember the good times and I pray that god will help you through the times ahead. “ Ronnie and Lisa usually sat in the seats in front of us each Sunday. Ronnie would smile that great smile, shake hands, and give everyone a hug or pat. Ronnie's love of God, family, and people always stirred me. There are no words. . .

I thank God for my memories of Ronnie and that our paths crossed, even a brief time. I will never forget his contagious smile and will forever appreciate the perspective he shared in casual 'parenting' chats/laughs - healing hearts and lasting memories for all who knew and loved him. Prayers from our home for Lisa and the boys.
