“ When we moved to Ewing Chapel Road in 1989 Ronnie (and Uncle Watson) were the first two people I met. While we were moving in Ronnie came over and introduced himself and told us about the community. Many days when I would be working outside he would come over and volunteer to help. When Matt and Eric were little, he would pull them around the yard in their wagon and peel apples from our tree for them . Uncle Watson had a collection of pocket knives that facinated my little boys and they loved to have Ronnie and Uncle Watson tell them all about the different knives. The past few years I would occassionally run into Ronnie and he was always friendly and asking about my boys.

Ronnie, I never forgot how you welcomed us to the community when we were "outsiders" moving in so many years ago.

Rest in peace...Cheryl S. Newman
