“ I first met Roop when he attended a Guyana Association of Georgia meeting at Holy Cross Church with his wife. The objective was to begin building a bridge between the Indo Guyanese and Afro Guyanese community in celebration for our 40th Republic Anniversary, and beyond. Ever since that day, Roop and I have been good friends. It was through Roop that I met and became friends with many in the Indo Guyanese community, and he made it possible on few occasions for me to address the audience at the Phagwa and Diwali celebrations. We didn't communicate much by phone, but would definitely exchange comments on Facebook. Roop's daughter and my nephew carried the Guyanese flag during the opening ceremonies of the Guyana vs. Guatemala soccer friendly. He was so proud of that moment to see his daughter participate. As Roop relocated to Orlando, Florida, I continue to support my Indo Guyanese brothers and sisters, but more so because we are all Guyanese. That is what Roop and I worked on, making sure the bridge was connected and remain intact. RIP brother Roop, I will miss you my brother.

“ I hope it comforts you all to know that your grief is shared by all of us who knew Tony.

The memories of him dressing up as Santa Claus when the kids were younger, the many functions he have helped plan, and his outgoing personality will surely be missed.

May he rest in peace.

“ God gives and he takes. He did not promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow, nor sun without rain. He did promise love and strenght for the day when comfort is needed. Today his son is in his arms gently sleeping. No more pain or anguish only the sweet joy of Gods comfort and love.

Tony is at home, may his soul rest in peace and may god grant all those who mourn the strenght knowing he is in a better place.

“ People will walk in and walk out of your life, but the one whose footprint made a long lasting impression is the one you should never allow to walk out.” We should be remembered for the things we do. The things we do are the most important things of all. They are more important than what we say or what we look like. Our dear brother was that person. Your name will always be engraved in our hearts Tony my brother, you will be truly miss. To the wonderful family you left behind, we would like to share our deepest sympathy and condolences. “My/our sincerest condolences to Aunty, Karisma, Lita, Shanti and all the family. Roop was a true inspiration to the community. When I moved to GA 15 years ago, I met Roop and was thrilled and in awe to see the dedication he maintained for his religion, keeping the community together and building a mandir for the people of GA. Roop - your dedication did not go in vain. A mandir was built. You will be terribly missed, but god wanted you home to build even more. Keep singing for the gods, Roop - something you enjoyed doing. You will always be remembered! May your soul rest in peace brother!
