“ I worked with Roy for nine years at Jones Transfer. He taught me about trucks and trucking. We had some good times at Jones and then when it closed, he and Charlotte and a few of us from Jones stayed friends. I missed him when he moved to Georgia. Every Christmas he would send us (my husband worked for Jones, too.) a picture of old trucks. He will be missed.

With sympathy,
Elaine DiOrio Barker

“ Although I've only known Roy since the mid '80s, I've heard the stories of a real "trucking pioneer". The tales of he and good friend Carlos Hicks hauling and moving big coils of steel at "Toledo 5" at the Ohio Turnpike told just how hard he worked to support his family. And Roy would tell us, just a few more pumps on the hydraulic jack will get the load equalized for the trip to Heaven ! We'll miss you Roy ! Dan Renovetz
