“ Prayers fpr the family of our friend whom we loved so much. My wife Wanda and I played cards with Roy at Senior Citizens. Roy loved playing cards and chuckled when he would win a hand of Rummy. Roy loved playing Bingo also. We would all laugh when his hearing aid fell out or he had it in his pocket . He carried it in a little bottle in his pocket so we would act like we were talking into his pocket. He would then chuckle. We spoke often of when we played music. I envied him because every instrument i showed him, he could play.We personally will miss him very much but the memories we Have of him will be in our hearts forever. Rest in Peace, our dear friend with our Lord in Heaven. You are gone but never be forgotten.
