“ Leona and Mike, We are so sorry for the loss of Roy. His life here on earth definately demonstrated that of a Christian. I always heard you preach your own funeral every day you live and I believe this to be true of Roy. Nothing anyone can say would add to his daily example of living as a christian.

Leona, you were always so good to me I hate for you to be left alone. Our prayers are for God to heal your hearts and leave you both with precious memories of Roy and the life you all had together. You both are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Dan and Rita Wages##imported-end##

“ Leona: Joan Clack told me about Roy; I was so sorry to learn of his deathl.

Mother passed away Saturday, 02/27; Gene had knee surgery on Monday, 03/01; snow and ice Tuesday, 03/02; Mother's visitation at funeral home Wednesday, 03/03; her funeral Thursday, 03/04; Gene came home from hospital after we finished at the grave site; today back to doctor and he had to drain the knee because of all the swelling and redness. I'm sorry I was unable to contact you over the weekend, but all my time was pretty well used up. I always believed God was able to handle anything and give us just the grace we needed, and I have proved Him true over the last week. I pray God will give you the peace and grace you need to endure the days ahead. We never know what God will allow in our paths, but I'm so thankful to know he loves us and cares for us.

“ Early in my career with Georgia Power Co., Lou was the coach of our softball team. Lou was easy going and great to work with at GPC. He was very competitive and he liked to see our team win. We miss seeing Lou around the office. He will be missed by all of us who knew and worked with him.

May God Bless You during this difficult time.

“ Mr. Lackey was the kindest neighbor anyone could ever have. Mr. Lackey personally painted the house numbers on every box in our neighborhood. Our dog, Milton, is still looking for him when we are out walking because Mr. Lackey always took up time with all of us and made us feel special. We are blessed to have known him and have learned a lot from his Christian example. He will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Tom & Jane Moore##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Lackey Our prayer are with you. Mr Lackey was a wonderful man. Our son Jeff played baseball on his team many years ago and he impressed us so much of how he treated all the boys. My husband speaks still today about how wonderful of a coach he was. His christian value showed in everything he did.##imported-begin##Roy & Diane Thompson & Jeff Thompson##imported-end##

“ Roy Lackey was one of the very finest men we have ever known. I just don't know that there are words to express how much we loved and respected Roy. While serving with him at Pleasant Grove he loved on us as teenagers, mentored us as young adults and continued to be generous with his time and wisdom even after we had moved on from the church. Everything Roy did, he did for the glory of God. His family, his most prized possession, is just one example of this.

We take joy in knowing that his eternity is secure with our Heavenly Father, and sadness in knowing that he will be missed until we join him there.

Our deepest sympathy is with his wonderful family.
