“ Amy, our hearts share in your sadness at this time and yet we rejoice with you in the wonderful joy and love that God shared with us through Roy.

Both of you are great friends from our days back in Brent. I'll always cherish the memories of Roy attending the Bible studies at the McHales house, Roy grew into such a fine Christian leader and your family is a beautiful example.

Truly God has blessed so many with the gift of Roy's life and for being an obedient servant of His.

Thanks for sharing him with us all and remember God's love, providence & grace for us all to join Roy someday.##imported-begin##Sara & John Quanrud, Suwanee, GA##imported-end##

“ Amy,
I am so sorry for your loss. It's been many years since I've seen you guys, but there's no doubt what a role Roy's faith played in his life, because my most vivid memories of him are that big smile that he always had and his joyous spirit.
We can hardly imagine what sights he's seeing today. God bless you and the kids.

“ Amy (and Family),

I was very saddened to hear about Roy's passing. I have thought so much of you all through the years and regret never following through on contacting you.

I hope you know that you and your entire family are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time in your life. But, if you are the same Amy from Jr. High and High School, I know you will make it because of your faith in God.

If you should need ANYTHING or if there is anything I can do to help you in any way please let me know.##imported-begin##Carol Moreland Higgins##imported-end##

“ Amy, Tyler, Cameron and Amelia:

We have prayed for you all numerous times since hearing the news on Saturday and will continue to pray for "peace that surpasses all understanding." (Philippians 4:6-7) We know there will be many decisions ahead and we will also be praying Proverbs 3:5-6 for your family. We pray that "He will direct your paths". Know that we care!##imported-begin##Dan, Debbie, Danielle and Lindsey Thomason##imported-end##
