“ Although I was unable to attend the services, I am so happy to have spent time with Ruby last Friday over lunch. She was upbeat as usual and we reminisced about good times at the PD. She laughed and laughed when I retold the story of her pulling her "dog fever" prank on me. My condolences to her terrific family and we are all more well off for having known her. What a model for all of us as to the importance of family.##imported-begin##Mike O'Connell##imported-end##

“ Ruby was a GREAT person. The service today was exceptional. I liked the way it was presented and think Ruby planned it well. Having known Ruby for so many years and experiencing her tremendous sense of humor and pranks that she loved to pull, I am almost surprised that when she made the list of things she wanted for her funeral, that she didn't ask for someone to grease the handles of the coffin with vaseline. That was one of her favorites at the PD. I know you guys miss her greatly. Take care and take care of Abe.##imported-begin##Gene T. Knight##imported-end##

“ A legacy she leaves behind - what an inspiration!

To be absent from the body is to be present with the lord!

John 14:1-6; Do not be troubled. Trust in God, trust also in me. In my fathers house are many rooms; If it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the place to where I am going. Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way? " Jesus answered, "I am the way, and the truth and the life. No one comes to the father except through me.

May this bible scripture bring comfort to my dear cousins and their loved ones in their time of loss.##imported-begin##Brenda Miller##imported-end##

“ When I think of Ruby, I think of her intense love for her children, peonies and what a prankster she was. We worked together at the Police Department until her retirement in 1991. Until just a few years ago, she brought me peonies from her yard when they bloomed...and they were always beautiful. You never knew what to expect from her...a huge bug in your desk drawer or a praying mantis on your desk that she'd found on the way to work. If you knew Ruby, you knew her family...by name. She was devoted to her children, and they were devoted to her. She took pride in their accomplishments and appreciated all the things they did for her. I trust that Ruby's children will be comforted by God's love and the wonderful memories they have of their Mom.##imported-begin##Dianne Powell##imported-end##
