

Ruskee Carraway Schubert

November 18, 1962 - January 22, 2026

Ruskee Carraway Schubert, age 63, born on November 18, 1962, in Montgomery, Alabama, was called to her eternal home on January 22, 2026, at her residence in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was the beloved daughter of the late Anne Carraway and Thomas Carraway, Sr. Ruskee grew up in Lawrenceville, Georgia, and graduated from Central Gwinnett High School in 1981, where she was crowned Homecoming Queen her senior year. She pursued a career in real estate and had a true passion for sales. Later in life, she and her husband made South Carolina their home, where she spent the remainder of her life as a devoted stay-at-home mother to their surprise twins. Ruskee is survived by her loving husband of 28 years, Joseph Schubert; sons, Tanner Roderick and Thomas Schubert (Gabi); daughters, Kendal Roderick (Garrett) and Taylor Schubert; stepsons, Christopher Schubert and Joey Schubert (Jessica); stepdaughter, Ashley Reyes (Alex); eight grandchildren, with two more on the way; her father, Thomas Carraway, Sr.; brother, Thomas Carraway, Jr. (Carla); and sisters, Tessa Shirley (Lewis) and Kelley Cofer (Shane), as well as several nieces, nephews, and cousins and her pups Bella and Stella. Ruskee was known for her unconditional love and was a shining light in the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her journey on this earth was marked by love, compassion, and an unwavering faith in God. A celebration of Ruskee's life will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 21, 2026, at Tim Stewart Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements by Tim Stewart

Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046. 770-

So sorry to hear this. Such a beautiful person, inside and out. She always shined no matter what was going on in her life. May God give the family comfort and strength as you all prepare to celebrate her life. Sending love and hugs.

I'm so sorry to hear this. Ruskee was the first friend I made when I moved to Myrtle Beach almost 20 yrs ago. Our children were the same age and she would get mine off the bus and watch her until we got off work. She was a beautiful person and a good mother and wife. She will be missed by many. May God grant peace and comfort to the family at this extremely difficult and very sad time. Live, GeAnn and Jeff Ohhh Ruskee! I didn't know you were sick, honey. I'm so sorry that you were so sick and you suffered so much! But, Oh! What a beautiful reward you are receiving now, walking hand and hand with Jesus, reuniting with loved ones that left before you! Leave your light on for us. We'll come find you when we get there! Till then we will be missing you and remembering all of the good times, and your children and grands, such beautiful, precious souls! They will be your beautiful lasting legacy reflecting your beautiful, loving spirit. We'll be seeing, sweet friend! Soon and very soon!

Ohhh I am so sorry to hear of this'd news. I know how much she loved the Lord through all of her battles and I know that her sincere love for Him was and is not in vain. He has her in His arms now and she is forever helped and set free indeed. I know how she loved all of her family and how she always loved life and was soo proud of her kids. Joe, you are also one of the kindest and sweetest souls I know and Ruskee was right there too...Blessings over all of you and please keep me up to date on your lives. Praying Taylor is still singing. God Bless you all! Pamela Cannon-Cook

I love you Ruskee. You were a light in every room. So happy I got to see you when I lived in Colorado and you were at Tanner's house. We shared a lot that day and I will always cherish it. ❤️ Praying for the loved ones you left behind.
