“ Amanda,

I only recently learned of Russ's passing through the Titusville Rockets Alumni newspaper. I would consider myself one of Russ's best friends from high school, and I hope he felt likewise. Regrettably, I failed to remain in contact with Russ, or anyone else from high school for that matter. I attended our 20th year reunion in 2007, and was sad that Russ wasn't able to make the festivities. In any event, I was extremely sorry to hear that Russ had passed. I remember him as a witty, fun-loving, and genuinely considerate person. It's a shame that I can only reflect upon a personal relationship that essentially ended at age eighteen. Anyhow, I hope that Russ remained the person that I once knew and that your life was better for having him in it. I am truly sorry for your loss.

Lovingly,

“ We are so very sorry to Amy, Peyton , and Garrett and the rest of the family. Jason and I are exteremly saddened and in shock, Russ was one in a million. I met him in 1999, the same night I met Jason, my husband, Russ was one of the nicest guys I've ever come across in my lifetime, He always had a smile, and always made me laugh. He was always there when you needed him and he was always a friend. He will be extremely missed, Now, he is with God . We are blessed to have him as one of God's angels looking over us, Take Care and God Bless, Sincerely, Cynthia Ellison.###imported-begin##Cynthia Ellison###imported-end##
