“ My aunt Pattie lived at Atrium of Georgetown with Ruth and I used to see her often at lunch as they sat at the same table. Ruth was the first to make my aunt feel welcome when she arrived several years ago. I always enjoyed talking with Ruth and my aunt counted her as one that she felt close to. When Pattie was in rehab for two months with a broken leg, Ruth made a point of calling and checking on her. That meant the world to my aunt and to me. I will miss seeing her at "the table" but I do know that she is still in so many people's heart, including mine. Please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Cari Walker##imported-end##

“ *It saddened us to read about our former neighbour's passing. Both Bill and Ruth were always so kind, thoughtful and interested in our family. Our sincerest condolences to all the family members.
