“ Ryan and i were 14 months apart. We have always been close and had a strong bond we talked just about everyday.He and my husband David were like brothers. My son Jamie and Ryan were very close they are just alike in so many ways, My brother was a good man that worked hard and loved his family deeply He has always been there for me and my family.I am so glad he retired early and got to enjoy his Mountain home and all his beloved animals.Gone to soon, never forgotten and always in my heart until we meet again brother i love you.

“ Ryan and I were married for 33 years. He was a great husband who took care of me and the kids. He was so happy when we moved from Loganville to the mountains last year. I am so glad his last year was spent up here...I just wish we had longer. We still had many things we wanted to do. I love you and miss you so much.

Ryan is my brother. When you saw him, Cindy was near. He is already very missed. I pray he had family waiting at the gates.
