“ So very saddened by this news... Ryan was my youngest cousin and I have fond childhood memories of he and Michael visiting grandmothers while my brother and I were there... Although, being the youngest, Ryan was always given a hard time (but he was such a cutie)... After RC passed, my dad (Buck) stayed in touch with Ryan and Michael.. I didn't see Ryan again until he was grown with children... I remember telling my Dad how handsome he was... and such a Beautiful smile... I was proud of the man he'd become... I pray the Lord will wrap his loving arms around Paige and the kids and give them a peace that passes understanding... All my love, Joan Redmon❤️

“ Sadly, the last time I saw Ryan, he was 16. I took Karate with him and his brother Mike along with my cousin, Nick who lived up the street. We always teased him because he was younger but there was no doubt he was so much better at Karate than we all were. I wished I stayed in touch...my heart is broken and all I can think about is the fun times we had with Mr. Wood at Kim Brothers...then on his own. Ryan always volunteered to teach others and share his time and talent. I cannot think of a more generous, dedicated and courteous person than Ryan. I am just so sad at his passing. I hope and trust that his wife and children find peace in the years to come and I wish the best of love and pray for all those affected. I will miss my childhood friend...a lot.

Sincerely,
Jeff Ashe

“ Ryan you will be greatly missed by so many people. You touched so many lives. You and crazy Paige were so much fun to be with and made a beautiful couple. My heart breaks for your beautiful family and I pray for God to send his comforting angel down to protect them and comfort them in this sad time. Thoughts and prayers are with each and everyone of them. Paige I love you and pray God will give you and the family the strength you all need to get through this.

*Love you always
