“ My deepest condolences to the Bond Family. I never had the pleasure of meeting Sally but heard such wonderful stories about her, from her husband Rick, who I worked with at GEMA for a couple of years. We the staff of Mitigation will never forget her delightful German Chocolate cakes, she would so graciously bake for us. Praying for comfort for the family as Sally is welcomed into the arms of our Lord and Savior.###imported-begin###Tara###imported-end##

“ Rick and family;
I worked with Sally in Purchasing until we both retired. She was one incredible lady, and I do mean "lady" in every sense of the word. My life has been enriched, because of knowing her. For certain, Heaven is going to be a happier place with the sound of her laughter and brilliance of her smile. Our loss is definitely Heaven's gain, but her vibrant spirit will live on in all our hearts forever.
In deepest sympathy,

“ I'm so sorry for the lose of Sally, she was a wonderful person and sure will be missed by so many. I worked with Sally for twenty years, and she always, made me feel good at work.
That wonderful smile she carried all the time no matter what went on during the day at work and she was loved by so many.
God Bless You All, my heart and prays go out to all of you.###imported-begin###Virginia Dare Cooper###imported-end##
