GIBSON, SAMUEL J. (Paw Paw)

Samuel Jones Gibson, 84, of Bethlehem, Georgia, went to be with the Lord on August 4, 2010. He is preceded in death by his parents, James and Carrie Gibson, and nine brothers and sisters. He is survived by his wife of more than 60 years, Nettie Jean Gibson; son: Barry Gibson, Norcross; daughters: Shelia (Jimmy) Fox, Bethlehem; Deanna (Kevin) McBurney, Athens; Deborah Jarrard, Bethlehem; and Sherri (Billy) Pike, Bethlehem; grandchildren: Amy Purcell, David Lee, Lisa Conner, Jamie Watson, Chelsea Norman, and B.J. Jarrard; five great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Gibson joined the Active Naval Reserves at the age of 17 and was stationed on the USS Nevada BB36 during World War II as an aviation electrician. With a talent for plants and landscaping, he started several nurseries after leaving the Navy. There are many properties in metro Atlanta whose beauty is the result of his handiwork. In 1972, he opened Riverside Azalea Farm in Bethlehem, Georgia. Known for his green thumb, especially with azaleas, he loved having his hands in the dirt and was always happy to share his knowledge of plants with others. He will be greatly missed by his family and all who knew him. Visitation will be held from 2:00 until 3:00 on Sunday, August 8th, 2010 with a private memorial immediately following in the Stateroom of Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Rd. SW, Lawrenceville, Ga. 30046. 770-962-3100.

“ Dear Jean and Family,
My heart breaks for your loss. I know that you rejoice in knowing that he is with our Heavenly Father and no longer in pain. I know that you all have many wonderful memories together and that will help you through this difficult time. Your memories will help you smile through the tears as I have done many times. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love to all of you. Jan###imported-begin##Janice Solesbee Kelly###imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your, Husband, Dad, and Grandpa.
I have very fond memories of many days ago when you'll were visiting Ma & Pa Mason across the railroad tracks from my house. It will be a great day when we all will be home with our loved ones and never have to say good bye again.
Know your in my prayers.
Love,

“ Jean and Family,

*I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know the sadness you feel as you all will surely miss him. As we all remain here to toil on to the end of our journey, he has accomplished his and is now in the arms of Jesus. Oh what a wonderful thought! I will be praying for your family. Jean, I really hope to get to see you sometime. Mama talked about you so much and loved you alot. I am so glad you had each other over the years. God Bless each of you. With much love and prayers.
