“ I always knew him as Uncle Louie. When I was a child I thought he was named after the ducks "Huey", "Louie", and "Dewey". My earliest memory was of him having an English style bicycle. I also remember him coming to Gram's house on Sunday with a carnation in his jacket lapel after being at church. My funniest moment was at Thanksgiving one year when he handed his son Nathan, a knife and said he did not want Vet school training to go to waste and to carve the turkey. Uncle Louie had a great dry humor and was always kind hearted. He loved model trains and last I heard he had never eaten pizza. I know he is in God's hands and will be missed by all of us who knew him. Oh, and Nathan, I am pretty sure there is ice-cream in Heaven!
