“ Jessica ,Agnes and Family, she is certainly a member of our clan that will be terribly missed. Guess I will reach back as far as my feeble brain will go and think about the day while I was visiting in Clarkston and she , Dianne Grey- the preacher`s daughter and I were sitting there on the curb in front of the parsonage having a good time. Then they began to talk about going to school and this country cousin had not been to preschool so they announced that they were older than me since I had not yet been to school which did not set well with me so I soon returned back up the street and around the corner to my Grandmother`s house. But I learned yesterday at the memorial service that I am a good 6 months older than she. So guess we can take that back up at a later date and maybe hear her precious laugh when we are all together again. What a day of rejoicing that will be. Meanwhile may you precious Grandchildren continue to make her as proud of you as she loved being. God bless one and all.

“ Jessica once long ago you told me that the song "Love her like Jesus" made you cry for Casey and I and our loss and others you love. Now I know exactly what you meant. We love you and are here for you and the kids any time day or night.

“ So sorry to hear of Sandra's passing. She was a great friend to the gang in high school. Agnes and Neal were great friends to my mom and dad for many, many years. So many memories to cherish. May the good Lord wrap his loving arms around your family and know that we will be reunited some day in heaven. Love always.
