“ Sarah was my granny Ruth's sister. I wish I could have visited her but life is busy. We just recently buried her nephew and are taking care of her niece Delores. My family and I pray for Sarah and all her loved ones.

It's Robert (Carmen) Castleberry in Canton Ga.

Judy's son. Im sure some of you remember me and my sister Sabrina.

Sarah has always been around from time to time in my life. My best memories were way back in the 70s when I could walk to her house from my Granny Ruth Castleberry's in knight park.

Then when she use to work at store on Bolton rd. I would see her a lot.

Sarah had to be the sweetest person the world. She was always kind to me and my sister when we really needed help. We were poor but her and granny always found away to put food on the table. We send our love and prayers for all.

“ Granny had a heart of pure gold. You just don't see that often anymore. She had the strongest spirit out of anyone I have ever known. The countless battles she's faced in the past few years, always emerging from it, and always had a smile. She always was quick to let you know if you were out of line. But was also forgiving, what ever the troubles were.

We will all miss Granny very much, and look forward to seeing her again on the other side.

“ One of my fondest memories of Sarah goes back to the 70s. Her daughter and I were best friends and went to high school together. Sarah opened a little restaurant near my home. In Saturdeays I would often go have breakfast, steak and eggs if she had a minute she would sit and chat. She was always sweet and kind and always made me feel special. Sarah you were an angel on earth and there is an empty feeling where your soul is to be.

“Granny, thank you for everything that you have done for me. You have always been there for me, and the love that you gave to me, meant the world to me. I don't think anyone has, could, or would love me the way that you did. Even at my worst, you kept on loving me. Even when I couldn't love myself, you kept on loving me. No matter how bad I messed up, you never judged me, and you never turned your back on me. You guided me, and you made me a better person. I'm going to miss you so much!!!
