“ I will always remember Sarah as a vibrant Christian lady who loves the Lord, her family, and her friends. She showed an interest in everyone's family, especially our grandchildren. She delighted in seeing pictures & videos of my granddaughter (now 15 months old). A part of my heart has gone with Sarah for now, and I look forward to seeing her again when I, too, return home to be with the Lord. My prayers are for her loving family who miss her in the here and now. May you be comforted in knowing Sarah is with the Lord, the goal of all believers. Peace be with you all.
