“ To the Shrope family. Our sincere thoughts are with you in the departing of Sara. I remember many good times as we all gathered at Aunt Bessie's and Uncle Wilber's house. It was unfortunate that distance split up as cousins at an early age. We can all look forward to seeing one another again one day in Heaven. I know this is a very hard time and I remember this scripture that has helped me in the past. The message is the Lord will not give us more than we can handle. He is with us always. I hope the fond memories you have will stay in everone's minds. Chris Harward##imported-begin##Chris, Amy, Logan, and Alexa##imported-end##

“ To Bill and all the children,

These past few days since the passing of Sara, not a day has gone by that I have not thought of her and of all of you at this time of mourning.

I so wish I could have been there with you all for the services. Time passes so quickly for us all, but Sara has left a great legacy through her children that will last for many, many lifetimes. Take comfort that she is at peace.

With Love and Condolences to you all,

“ I hope the family is doing well for the circumstance you just endured. May God watch over you all and keep you strong. Remember this:
Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, we all are meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place far greater than we know. For some, the journey's quicker, for some, the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord. As your wife/mother enter the gates of heaven, may GOD's gentle peace comfort yours heart and the family's###imported-begin###Theresa Gordon###imported-end##

“ I will miss Sara. She was a good friend and an awesome quilting 'Sister'. I know that she is dancing and singing with the angels - and probably teaching them all how to quilt! I love you, Sara!###imported-begin###Christine Gant###imported-end##

“ In the near future our enemy death will be no omore. The Bible give us the promise that cannot be broken. Revelation 21:3-5 tell us so. By means of our savior Jesus that Bible promise will be a reality. May the God of peace give you comfort. Take care###imported-begin##Jeanie##imported-end##

“ Love and blessings to you all during this sad time.

My tears flow as I watch the video of Sara and of all of you, Wilbur, Bessie and Pat too.

I am so grateful to have been able to know Bessie and Wilbur and through them to spend time with Pat, Sara and you their family.

I came to know Wilbur, my neighbor and friend, the best during the times I spent eating dinner with him and listening to his memories, his life's stories. They made me realize how important it is to live life such that near my end days, I can bring back the memories, the love, the pleasure, humility, and compassion in remembering and telling my stories about the people, animals and things that were part of my life. I think that mostly his memories brought him love and peace.

There is a lot of love in your family. I saw how much Wilbur and Bessie worried about you sometimes and loved you all and how much you loved them. On my one visit to your home I saw how much you love each other. I wish you Lots and lots and lots of hugs to help you through your sad times and may Sara 's beautiful loving spirit and the loving spirits of all your ancestors be with you.
