“ You had the best title in the world to me and that was Dad. You were not only my Dad but you were also my coach and my teacher. I learned many things in life from you and I will always remember the life lessons I learned from you even though I didn't know it was a lesson at the moment. You always loved me and Matthew and put us first. I love you and miss you. It's not good by it's see you later because I know I will see you again some day. I love you and miss you. I will continue you on your coaching legacy and continue to try and be a good Dad like you were.

“ Scott was such a gentle soul, he loved children ! He always had such patience and always had a smile to share. He and Eddie coached t-ball, and would invite the team over for beer burgers, which were totally awesome! He was an awesome cabinet maker as well and installed ours at the Lake, he was a perfectionist about his work! I bet he and Eddie now are selecting their team up in Heaven ! I for one look forward to the day to sit on the bleachers to root their team on to victory!!! Love you Dale ! Becky Lasseter

“ Whenever a loved one leaves this beautiful and treacherous world, Jesus our Saviour promises eternal life in Heaven to all who believe in Him. Therefore we celebrate the life of a kind, good and strong man like Scott.

May the Lord comfort each one of you and guide your family to glorious hope through His holy name. With sympathy, the Jarrett family

“ Scott was my nephew, my sister June's second son. So I've known Scott all it life. He was a soft, quiet and easy going person. He loved his kids and family. I don't recall him saying anything bad about anyone, he loved life and helping others. Condolences to Linda and family, he will be missed by everyone. RIP Scott and the family can have expectations of a ressurection on a restored paradise earth.

“ He was more than a coach to all of us at Lilburn Lion's club. Thanks for the teachings, mentoring, & growing us little rascals into adults. I'm sure the diamond up there is better than Lilburn.
