“ Ive worked with Scott for the past 2 years and always felt envious of his ability to just talk to anyone anywhere about anything he wanted to. He was outgoing and had a glow about him that will be truly missed. My condolences.

“ Scott and I know each other from work. He made me feel welcome from the start and took me under his wing for the first few months I was there. He helped me raise to the position I'm at now. We got talking once in a while about family and our hobbies. Don't know if it's cliché but you don't know the type of bond you have till it's gone. He was a good friend. I'm very sorry for his family. He will be missed!
