“ Miss Sheila was the best Bus driver in the World! She was ALWAYS so cheerful, friendly happy, and talked to us. She also ALWAYS played games with us too. I also enjoyed calling her and texting her.

“ There are some that are rich with wealth....some that aren't but rich in so many ways.

That was Sheila, she was rich in:

- Family. Love of her family was the most important thing to her. Randall and his parents. Her children, grandchildren, brother and sister and all other family members.

- Friends - So many friends she considered family. Some old and some new and their children and grandchildren. You know who you are because she was there for you with that beautiful smile that spread to her eyes when she laughed out loud. Which was so often.....

- Goodness of heart and faith. She was a women of God and her goodness to others ran deep. She was the rock of strength for her family and friends when times got rough or advice needed if you wanted to hear it or not. Regardless of how deep her sorrow ran.

-Strength. When the going gets tough, the tough got going, that was Sheila through and through.

She will be missed and thought of often for years to come. Remember and learn from her example.....I plan to to be a better person because of her. Sheila you were the best sister-in-ever. Love you❤️

“ My nana was literally the best Nana anybody could ever ask for. She was a very strong and independent woman who never let her emotions of being sad show when her grandkids were around. Us grandkids were the center of her world, and I know she meant the world to us. I remember I stayed the night at her house, and this song came on the tv. She started dancing around and acting all goofy and my papaw just kept smiling while looking at her like she was crazy! Nana and I have many memories together, and she has always been mine and my mom's number one supporter and always had out backs. She has this contagious smile, even though she never liked being in many pictures. She was always the one taking the pictures of everyone else, while also accidentally cutting parts of people's head off in the picture. She is and will forever be deeply missed, and I will always love her. She wouldn't want me to dwell and grieve. Instead she would tell me to pick my head up and be strong. I love you Nana.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Ms. Sheila. Sheila and Randall were like a second set of parents to me while we were growing up. Most of the memories were from the ballfield but there are just too many to name. She was a special lady and a wonderful momma. She will be missed by so many. Big hugs to you Cheryl and your family.

“ The first time Kaye and I met Sheila, she was on Kaye's doorstep and Randall told her to come in and meet us and make friends. Those were the beginning words to a friendship that were passed through years, a lot of tears, a lot of kids, a lot of good times, sad times, and mostly in making of memories of a group of friends that have carried on their friendship for over 40 years. We have all laughed, cried, and hugged each other through all the crisis in our lives. We always kidded and Sheila always told us that she would be the one that would have to look after Kaye, Donald, Evelyn and me because she was the baby of the bunch. God had a great plan for Sheila or he would have left her on this earth to do more with us. She always said that she wanted to leave this world quick and not linger like Randall. God wrapped his arms around her and took her to be with Randall. How great thou art! I am so happy that she is with Randall. Her tears always tore me up when she would speak of him. My heart would break. Now, they are together up in heaven. No, we did not want to loose a good friend, a mother, an aunt, a grandmother, but just please hold in your heart how precious she is feeling now to be with him. God wrap your arms around her family during this time and know that they are loved by ALL of us. Crying and grief is what we are feeling, but God gained another angel in heaven today. Take care of her Randall. We loved her as our dear friend.
