“ I love "Jean" - Shelba like a sister. I spent many days with her and her mother. I loved both of them. She was my friend from high school. Doris Tuggle Hammond

“ I remember her as "Gene Duncan Stevens" (spelling may be different)
To Greg and family - my heartfelt condolences.
I remember as a teenager, helping to sprig grass in the front yard at their first home on what's now called Jimmie Carter Blvd. They put in white wall-to-wall carpeting (which was really upscale) and we had to remove our shoes at the door. And the wide open basement with steel beams spanning the entire floor was really nice too. Gene seemed to really like that first house. Greg was a baby then - but he has grown up and doing well now with kids of his own. Passing on Gene's genes so to speak.

Jean and I went to Lilburn High school from the 6th grade to 12th and have been friends ever since. I have many memories of her and the beautiful girl that she has always been. I will miss our late night calls catching up on what we both have been doing since our last phone call..May God fill your heart with only the best memories of your mom. I will be there Thursday for her memorial service from 6 to 8 pm. God bless you and your family on your loss..
