“ Sherion and I worked together for several years at News America. This job ended in 2000. Even with her moving away from Douglasville, she called often and never forgot my birthday with a sweet message and a Christmas card every year without fail. She was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. I will miss you terribly. I hope you can Rest In Peace now and are with your true love Gary again.

“ Sherry and I go way back, we met in the early 1980's, not long after my 1st marriage and her and Gary's marriage...the love of her life ❤️ We worked together, lived together, laughed, loved, cried and prayed together, we were BFF. Unfortunately after she lost papa Joe, Sherry and family moved to South Georgia and somehow we lost contact for 17 years 😞 but thanks to a mutual friend we were reunited again about 8 years ago and it was as if we never parted, BFF and ALWAYS ❤️ I LOVE YOU AND YOU'LL ALWAYS BE MISSED ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ God bless her children (I love you all) grandchildren, sisters, all family and friends 🙏 She's happy now, she's with papa Joe and Gary, finally at peace. Gone but never forgotten 💔

“ Sherry and I as well as her family and my family spent a lot of time together for many years. Her Dad was my husband’s boss in Savannah and then again in Atlanta. Dear Joe, we miss you! I have so many memories of times we spent together. We laughed a lot, cooked together, prayed together, cried together, help clean each other’s homes, you name it! I was with Sherry during the time when Sherry lost Dear Gary. When my son James was serving in Iraq during The Iraqi Freedom War, Sherry was there for me. We knelt and she prayed for my son as I wept for his safety. She often spoke about this over the years because she felt my pain so deeply. I was always so grateful for her care. So, I guess that is a memory that comes to mind. Sherry was my best friend. Sherry never left my heart or my thoughts and prayers ever.

To Sherry’s family... Brittany, Misty, Garrett, Debra, Belinda, Penny, Sherry’s grandchildren and to the rest of her family I am so, so sorry. I can’t seem to find the right words to express my sorrow for you. I know Sherry would want you to remember the good and happy times! The very good news and not with a shadow of doubt, that she is in Heaven!

My Love and sincere condolences to you all, Karen Shelton

First Tim and I would like to give our deepest condolences to Brittany, Misty, Garrett and her entire family. Sherry was one of the most kind and precious souls I've ever had in my life. Sherry would give what I would call a HOLY HUG. There was a genuine LOVE behind it! Her LOVE for others was deep. Sherry touched alot of lives in a meaning full way. We will all MISS Her very very much. But in my heart I know Sherry is with the LORD and Gary the love of her life here on earth. Rest in Peace my sweet friend. Our sincere and deepest condolences, Tim&Deb Moir
