“ I worked at Ameritas in Lincoln NE and Sherrie and I would talk daily. If she was having a bad day, I would call to cheer her up, want visa versa. I love hearing her talk about her cats and shared my cat stories of her as well. I loved her dearly and cherished our conversations and her incredible personality. I'm very heavy in heart and will miss her. God has a special angel in heaven, who will add Laughter and love up there. My prayers and love are with the family. She was a very special person.
