“ I know Sherrie from our boys attending Rosebud ES together. Mitchell and Russell had been in 1st and 2nd grade together up until this year. Sherrie was an awesome Mom and adored spending time with Mitchell. She loved to attend class field trips and class celebrations. Because the boys weren't together this year I had lost touch with Sherrie I am completely heartbroken for the families devastating loss.. Sherrie you will be dearly missed by all that knew you and especially by your sweet little boy Mitchell.. Godspeed... Sincerely Yvette Young###imported-begin##Yvette Young###imported-end##

“ I knew Sherrie through work, we both worked at Alexander Underwriters Ins Co many years ago and I have not seen Sherrie in a long while, but I do remember what a strong laugh she had and also what a beautiful person she was. I am sending my prayers to the family for God to give you the strength to get through this. This is probably one of the hardest things that you the husband, son , mother and brother will ever have to do. My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you . Take peace in knowing Sherrie is out of pain and will be your guardian angel.###imported-begin##Lisa Walton###imported-end##

“ Sherrie,
We'll miss you. I hope you know how much you are loved and how much you have impacted so many lives. You fought a brave fight. I know you are up there now, sitting there chatting with Nanny and looking over all of us.
We love you!##imported-begin##Tanya Whitfield Jones##imported-end##
